PRIVACY INFORMATION

This information is being collected solely for the purpose of recruitment and assessing your application for employment. This information is not disclosed to any organisation during the recruitment process, unless required or authorised by law. Referees may be contacted and references made without consulting you. If you are successful in obtaining a position, it will then form part of your employment record. If you are unsuccessful, the information collected about you including this form will be destroyed within 3 months of you having made the application. In completing and signing this application, you are consenting to us collecting information for the purposes indicated, however failing to provide any of the requested details might affect our ability to assess your application or further progress your application. You are able to access the information contained in this application and the information collected through any reference check by contacting us via written request to the address which is located above, until it is destroyed (see above).
